Subject Draft Subpart W Preamble and Rule Language

INTERNAL AND DELIBERATIVE

Sue,

As we discussed, here is the revised draft preamble and rule language for Subpart W. I believe the new format is in line with your comments, and should look more familiar to you and Wendy. I have tried to address all the comments that I received, although it might not be easy to determine this since I revamped the document. There are three areas that still need work. (b)(5) - Deliberative Process Privilege

[REDACTED]

As we discussed this morning, we are aware that (b)(5) - Deliberative Process Privilege, and subsequent review all the way up to your front office will add a little time, and we hope to reflect this in moving the date for FAR to around December 15.
